4 TIPS FOR PASSING YOUR AMAZON MANAGER INTERVIEW

The following tips are all suitable for managerial positions within Amazon, including Operations Manager, Account Manager, Team Leader, Business Development Manager, Logistics Manager, Area Manager, Contracts Manager and Senior Operations Manager.

TIP #1 – Amazon is undoubtedly one of the greatest companies to work for. However, if you want to become a manager for the world's leading online retailer, you will need to demonstrate you have the ability to drive your team towards achieving Amazon's business objectives. There is no room for people who are not committed to Amazon's core values within the business, and as a manager you will need to learn and understand the leadership principles. On that basis, before you attend the Amazon Manager interview, we strongly recommend you read these important principles to make sure you are fully prepared and focused.

TIP #2 – Sticking with the Amazon leadership principles, prior to attending your interview, think of a time when you have demonstrated each of the 14 principles in a prior work-related situation. To help you prepare for your Amazon Manager interview, we have provided you with sample interview questions and answers on this page that are designed to put you ahead of the competition.

TIP #3 – The majority of questions at your Amazon Manager interview will be behavioural-based. Behavioral questions are designed to see when you have already demonstrated the core skills and attributes required to perform the role competently. Make sure you study the questions on this page and have top scoring answers prepared in time for your interview!
